

Help Nia Find Her Way Home

Niki Fables • Ages 7-12 • Bonus Story

The wind was starting to cool, and Aelira dipped one wing toward the ground.

"It's time to go home, little one," she said. "But the sky remembers every path differently each night. You'll have to help me find the way."

Nia peered down at the winding forest below, tracing the twists and turns with her eyes until, at last, she spotted the rooftops of Willowbrook glowing warm in the distance.

Trace the maze below to help Nia find her way home, then read Nia and Aelira to see what she discovers once she lands.
